JBHS Link Crew

December Newsletter

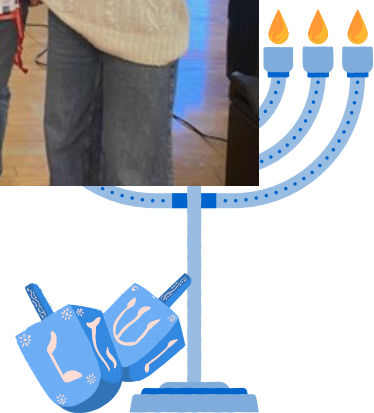

This month, Link Crew held Cocoa and Cram, an event where our leaders helped the freshmen study for finals. We also held an all-leader meeting to acknowledge some of our leaders who have been working very hard. We also had our last OG day of the semester with our freshmen, where we had a snowman drawing contest. The winning class will be awarded donuts!

Our Departments

Social Committee

Social did an amazing job planning Cocoa & Cram. They also passed out all the birthday cards for December.

Publicity Committee

Publicity has kept up with their daily posts, while also making sure that we always have the latest news out for our freshmen. (Follow our socials! Link to socials: <https://linktr.ee/linkcrewjbhs>)

Academic Committee

Academic has done a wonderful job planning a lesson to help the freshmen with studying for final exams. They also planned a very enjoyable OG day and end-of-semester celebration.

Events

Cocoa and Cram

Cocoa and Cram was a huge success!!

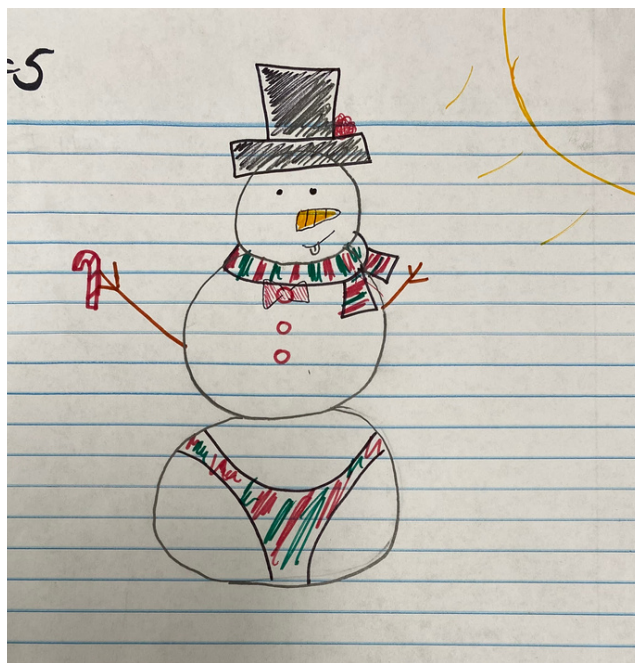

Our wonderful social committee planned a successful study event for the freshman. Our leaders put together cups of hot chocolate with candy canes. We sent out other leaders to sit in teachers classrooms so that if any freshmen needed tutoring help, they could get it from their leaders!

Snowman Drawing Contest

We held a snowman drawing contest during our last OG day with our freshmen. The winning snowman came from Ms.

Snowden's AE Link Crew class. The freshmen decided to draw a snowman in a bikini enjoying the summer weather. This class will be getting a box of donuts as a reward for the amazing and creative snowman drawing!

Light of Link Crew

Light of Link Crew is where Link Leaders nominate other Link Leaders in their respective committees for working hard and being awesome leaders. At the last All-Leader meeting, the leaders with the most nominations were recognized by the adult coordinators and were given a certificate of appreciation!

All-Leader Meeting

Since it was our last All-Leader Meeting on December 8th, we decided to play some fun winter games so our leaders could end the semester with some winter spirit. One of the activities we did was making some leaders into a Christmas tree with some random items that were given to us. Everyone had a wonderful time playing. The winning group decorated Brooklyn V. Congrats, Brooklyn's group!
