

SCHOOLWIDE Learning Outcomes

P

Purposeful

Students will establish meaningful personal priorities and achievable academic and career goals that propel them to succeed both socially and academically in a global society.

R

Respectful

Students will be culturally proficient, empathetic, kind and show integrity in all settings both personal and professional.

I

Innovative

Students will be communicative and collaborative learners who use a variety of methods and strategies to analyze, create, interpret and evaluate knowledge and information both individually and collectively.

D

Determined

Students will have a growth mindset, embody resilience and be able to apply appropriate problem-solving and critical thinking skills in real-life situations.

E

Engaged

Students will be curious, attentive and passionate in their acquisition of skills and knowledge enabling them to actively and effectively participate in society's systems and communities both local and global.