

Good Morning John Burroughs!

Daily Bulletin September 12, 2019

Good News from the Discipline office:

Parking Permits - If you applied for a parking spot, the Approved list has been posted in the Discipline office. Come by and get your parking permit sticker and official spot. ALL Students must respect and follow parking lot rules or risk having permit revoked.

Lunch Passes - LUNCH Passes are in! The approved list has been posted in the Discipline office. If you are on the Approved list and have ALREADY PAID and turned in your receipt, come during Nutrition or Lunch or afterschool to pick up your lunch pass.

Hey skateboarders, make sure you lock up your skateboard outside on the rack daily, but do not leave your lock overnight or it will be cut off.

Happening on Campus

Juniors, this is a MAJOR FUNDRAISER for your PROM! The dance is TOMORROW from 7-10pm in the JBHS Quad and MPR. Tickets will be sold at the door.

The Annual JBHS Talent Show is next Friday, September 20th from 6-8pm!!! Tickets are currently being sold in the student store and by all of the participating acts for $7! You don't want to miss out on the singing, dancing, comedy, magic, and more PSAT: The PSAT exam will be offered to 10th and 11th graders on Wednesday, October 16, 2019 at JBHS. Tests can be purchased from the Student Store beginning on Monday, September 9th through Friday, October 11th. The cost is $25.00. There are only 500 tests, first come first serve for test purchases. Once you have ordered the test please see your Counselor if any accommodations are needed.

TEEN COURT: We will have our first training session and trial on Tuesday, Sept. 17th in the library after school. Proceedings begin at 3:15 so please be on time. The session should be over by 5:00, so please plan accordingly to stay. Everyone is welcome. If you signed up at Club Rush and receive a Jury Summons, please bring this with you. It will be used to check you in for attendance and service learning records. If you missed signing up at Club Rush but wish to come see what it's about, please be sure you sign in when you arrive so we can account for your hours. Questions? See Mrs. Grene in the library, Mr. Bullington or Ms. Mucha.

Mantra Magazine: Are you a writer, photographer or artist? Would you enjoy collaborating with like-minded students? Within the history of JBHS lies Mantra Magazine. Over the years, this literary and arts magazine created by and for students, has come and gone. If you'd like to be part of bringing it back, please see the flyers around campus or in the library and scan the QR code that will take you to the interest form. Any questions? Please see Mr. Kuglen or Ms. Grene.

We have a paid job opportunity for students in high school and middle school. Flyer is attached for our youth basketball scorekeeping classes. Students who scorekeep earn $10 for each game that they work. Please pass the word to students, scorekeeping classes start Tuesday Oct 1st. We have arranged for flyers to be dropped off at your school sites as well. Thanks again for your help.

CSF Tutoring: Do you sometimes need help with a class assignment or homework? Drop in to the library after school Monday through Thursday. CSF students are available for peer tutoring for one hour after school: 2:00 - 3:00 on early release and 3:00 - 4:00 on regular release. Sometimes hearing the problem or assignment from another student can clear up confusion and help you get the work done!

Library Closed: The Library will be closed beginning Thursday, 9/19 and reopen on Wednesday, 9/25. The Textbook Room will be open during this time, if you need access. Please plan accordingly.

PBIS: Our PBIS focus this month is Teamwork! Teamwork is an effective and efficient combined action of a group of people. How will you exhibit teamwork at school? By working together, we can share ideas, make friends, and build a better world.

Portraits of Kindness General Info Meeting: If you signed up at Club Rush or are interested in learning more about this year's Portraits of Kindness Project, please plan to attend the general information meeting at lunch on Thursday, 9/12 in the library. Meeting will begin at 12:30 allowing time to finish your lunch before coming into the library, please.
